EDUCATION POLICIES FOR STUDENTS 2019

The Art Association of Newport, now the Newport Art Museum, was founded in 1912 on the belief that arts and culture have the power to bring diverse groups of individuals together, which ultimately promotes civic engagement and strengthens the social fabric of our communities. This core idea continues to inform our Museum’s direction today.

To support these values, the Education department provides programming for all ages, including a year-round tuition based school, summer camps for children, extensive outreach offerings, a career prep program for high school students (MuSE), homeschool programs, public programs, school tours, and events.

General Policies

Safe Space
Newport Art Museum provides its students and guests an environment that is physically and emotionally safe for all. By participating in our programs, you can expect to engage with people of diverse backgrounds, needs, and abilities. We expect that people here of all ages demonstrate safe, respectful, and appropriate behavior. We reserve the right to suspend or dismiss students at any time for conduct that we deem detrimental to our community, or that violates state and federal laws. Students who are removed from a class or camp due to conduct violations will not receive a refund.

Non-Discrimination Notice
Newport Art Museum does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, national origin, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law in admission to, participation in, or administration of its educational programs and activities; in employment; or in its other programs and activities.

Accommodations for People with Disabilities
If you require any accommodations to participate in any of our offerings, please contact the Museum Education Manager at the time of registration. Requests may take over two weeks to arrange, so make your formal requests as early as possible.

Photography and Videography Notice
The Museum occasionally photographs its programs, participants, and work created in our programs, for use in promotional materials. You may at any time ask that you not be photographed, or contact us if there is an image in use that you want removed from our website or social media. All photographs taken by our staff for Museum purposes are property of Newport Art Museum.

Inclement Weather
Newport Art Museum announces its closures via our website and Facebook. If you are driving across the bridges, check the RI Transit and Bridge Authority for travel alerts. The Education team will determine 24 hours in advance whether to close the School, when possible. We are not able to contact students directly about closures. We will work with our instructors to determine a makeup date, if possible.
Financial Policies

Discounts
Newport Art Museum members receive a discount on tuition for courses and camps in our School. Select workshops and classes are ineligible for the member discount. The discount does not apply to fees or transportation costs. To receive this discount, log in to our website with the email address associated with your membership. Once logged in, the discount is automatically applied for all active members. If you are logged in and are not seeing the member discount being applied, please contact our membership department to confirm that your membership is up to date. For further directions on logging into our new website, see Registration FAQ’s.

Scholarships
Thanks to a number of generous individual and corporate sponsors, we can offer need-based scholarship, with preference given to children and youth. To apply for a scholarship, complete the scholarship application form a minimum of two weeks before the class start date.

Registering for a class
All registrations and payments for classes are done online via our website. If you must pay by check, stop by our Education Office to register through our website and submit your check in person. Cash payments are not accepted. We are unable to reserve seats in any classes, so be sure to register early.

If your registration is being paid by an institution, or if you are an institution paying for someone’s registration, contact Museum Education Manager at sconniff@newporartmuseum.org.

Withdrawing + refunds
If you’d like to withdraw from a course, notify the Museum Education Manager in writing via email. To receive a refund on tuition, written notice must be submitted a minimum of 5 business days prior to the class start date. Tuition is refunded according to the date of receipt of your written withdrawal notice; fees such as material, model, and firing fees are non-refundable after the first class. There is a $25 processing fee per course for all withdrawals. Notification of withdrawal received through our instructors does not constitute official notice. Payments made through our website will be returned to the card charged; it may take up to four weeks to receive a refund for payments made by check. We do not prorate to attend part of a course. Students who are removed from a class or camp due to safe space policy violations will not receive a refund.

Course cancellations
Courses that do not meet minimum enrollment requirements will be cancelled a minimum of one week before the course start date, and enrolled students will be notified by email. If your course is cancelled, you will be given a full refund. Refunds may take up to four weeks to process, and will be issued according to the original payment method. We are not responsible for the costs of supplies purchased in advance.
Studio use

Current students
Students currently enrolled in select classes are invited to unlimited access to our print and clay studios during studio hours, which are subject to change but are typically Tuesdays and Thursdays 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m., and Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. Current hours will be posted at the entrance each session. We ask that everyone sign in and out at the entrance so that we have a record of who is in our spaces.

Pay-as-you-go
If you are not a current student, you may purchase a 3-hour block of studio time for $20. Simply show up during studio hours and stop in the office to pay for the time. Availability is limited, so please call ahead to confirm that a space is available. The clay studio is not available for pay-as-you-go.

Clay
All clay used in our studios must be purchased through the School; no outside clay is permitted in the studio or kilns. You can purchase your clay in the Education office. We charge $35 for a 25lb bag of clay. We accept payments of card or check.
